Open Mic/Public Comment
Multiple people spoke on behalf of the Car Cruise thanking Council and the police department for working with them to facilitate the cruise.

Bernice Olson appeared before Council to express concerns related to parking on her street. She then asked Council to review the safety implications of continuing to allow parking on her street.

Councilmember Johnson thanked the Car Club for the efforts they put in to making sure that the Boulevard is cleaned after the car cruises.

Councilmember Geisler commended the Car Club for working with the Council to mitigate the impacts of the noise and traffic on the surrounding neighborhoods.

City Manager Stemwedel noted that the Farmer’s Market will begin on July 15 and will run through October with a few adjustments to account for COVID-19. He also noted that paddleboard yoga and a few other recreation programs are able to be conducted. Visit the City’s website for further information.

Mayor Koch thanked police and fire responders for the response at his mother’s home when she had a stroke a month ago. He then said he is very thankful to live in Coon Rapids where emergency response time and having Mercy Hospital so close by gave his mother the opportunity to be given a drug that reversed the impacts of the stroke to the point where she will be celebrating her 100th birthday on Wednesday and will return home on Friday.
