This document is designed to help you understand the rental licensing process, provide contact information, and help you prepare for the rental inspection prior to obtaining a rental dwelling license.

A License is Required

The operation of rental properties is a business enterprise that includes certain responsibilities. Rental Owners, Operators and Managers are responsible to take reasonable steps as are necessary to ensure that the citizens who occupy such rental units, as well as neighboring properties, may pursue the quiet enjoyment of the normal activities of life in surroundings that are safe, secure, and sanitary, free from noise, nuisances and annoyances, and free from unreasonable fears about safety of persons and property.

License fees are waived for deployed, active military personnel.

When a License is Not Required

- If the property is recorded with Anoka County as a relative homestead or a recorded contract for deed.
- For Snowbirds.

Conversion Fee

An owner occupied single family, town home, condo or twin home that has not previously been a registered rental property and is converted to a rental property shall pay a conversion fee of $500. The conversion fee went into effect on September 1, 2009.

The one time conversion fee includes the rental license application and inspection fees for the first year. (It does not include fees for required training or background check.)

Summary

- A rental license application and owner background check documents are required to be submitted with the appropriate fees.
